Value for money

The Cambrian Line Railcard costs just £12.50 and offers one third off all individual standard class rail fares on the Cambrian Line between Shrewsbury, Machynlleth, Aberystwyth and Pwllheli.

Trips for shopping, visiting friends or exploring the Cardigan Bay coastline and mid Wales countryside can work out so much cheaper with a railcard.

The railcard is valid for 12 months from date of issue.

Cardholders may also take up to two children (under 16 years old) at £2 single or return per child. Other offers for children under 16 may be available for your journey and offer better value. To find out more visit fwrail.wales/travel-for-under-16s.

With only a few journeys, the railcard will quickly pay for itself – the more you travel, the more you save.

When you cannot use your Cambrian Line Railcard:

- On bus services
- For the purchase of season tickets at discounted prices
- On special excursion trains (i.e. not shown in the public timetable)
- With any Rail Rover products (e.g. North Wales Rover, Explore Cambrian and Explore Wales Pass)
- In conjunction with special promotion tickets
- For travel beyond Shrewsbury
- In conjunction with Small Group Day discount
- In conjunction with any other national or local railcard (i.e. Heart of Wales Line or Pembrokeshire)

Please note that the Railcard can only be used, in either direction, between Shrewsbury and Machynlleth, Aberystwyth and Pwllheli. These services are shown in Pocket Timetable 1.

Conditions of use

- The railcard is not valid unless it has been signed by the holder, nor is it transferable to anyone else. Tickets bought with a railcard are for use by the railcard holder only.
- The railcard does not become your property and if requested must be handed in to Transport for Wales.
- When requested by rail staff, the holder must show a valid railcard, otherwise the full standard fare will be payable as if no railcard were held.
- If the railcard becomes defaced, illegible or torn, it will not be valid.
- Lost or damaged cards cannot be replaced.
- Other offers for children under 16 may be available for your journey and offer better value. To find out more visit tfwrail.wales/travel-for-under-16s.

Validity of discounted tickets

- Travel is permitted within the normal validities of the tickets issued provided a valid railcard is held and produced on demand.
- Discounted tickets are only valid for travel on the Cambrian Line Services operated by Transport for Wales and cease to be valid on expiry of the railcard.
- Tickets are subject to the National Rail Conditions of Travel and those conditions listed in this leaflet.
- In the event of conflict the conditions in this leaflet shall apply.
- Terms and conditions may be subject to change. For details, please check with your nearest staffed station, by phone or on line.

How to use your Railcard and purchase tickets

Where facilities exist, tickets should be bought before boarding the train.

If not, railcard holders will be required to pay the full standard single fare on the train without the benefit of any discount.

Where ticket issuing facilities are not available at a station, tickets may be purchased on the train at the appropriate discounted fare.
